

THE FOOD DONATION TAX CREDIT

FEED PEOPLE, NOT THE LANDFILL

S2757/H7995 WILL CREATE A TAX CREDIT FOR QUALIFIED TAXPAYERS WHO DONATE FOOD TO RI ORGANIZATIONS

Introducing a tax credit for those who donate surplus food, we aim to weave together community support and environmental stewardship into the fabric of our state.

FACING HUNGER HEAD-ON

In our own backyards, 31% of households grapple with food insecurity. It's not just a statistic; it's our neighbors, friends, and family.

A TICKING ECO TIME BOMB

100,000 tons of wasted food annually contributes to the swelling RI Central Landfill, hastening its 2043 expiry and releasing methane - an invisible but potent threat to our climate.

BUSINESSES AT A CROSSROADS

Every unsold item is a dent in local businesses' finances. It's time to turn these losses into community gains.

A BOLD PROBLEM NEEDS A BOLD SOLUTION

The call is out for proactive businesses, visionary legislators, and passionate community members to support the cause of transforming surplus food into a symbol of hope, sustainability, and environmental stewardship while reducing hunger and supporting the local economy.
